

Privacy and cookies

The Thomson Reuters Foundation (We) are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy.

Our privacy policy sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you, or that you provide to us, will be collected and processed by us.

You can find our privacy and cookie policy on our main website here: <http://www.trust.org/privacy-and-cookies/>. The above linked policy sets out our views and practices regarding your personal data and how we will treat it. The following also applies:

1. The contact and profile data we collect from you will also be collected when you submit an entry for our “Covid 19: The Bigger Picture” award (the “Competition”)
2. We may use information held about you to contact you by email, telephone or post with information and updates about or in response to your entry for the competition.
3. If you enter the Competition and your entry is shortlisted to win (and/or if you go on to win the Competition) we will publish your entry on our award website together with personal biographical data about you that you have provided to us.

In case of any questions regarding our privacy practices, if you would like to execute your rights or would like to submit a complaint please contact foundation@thomsonreuters.com

You have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO), the UK supervisory authority for data protection issues (www.ico.org.uk). We would, however, appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach the ICO so please contact us in the first instance.
